

Bank traineeship

CHATHAM High School student Tannika Kent is thoroughly enjoying her new school based traineeship with the Commonwealth Bank.

Tannika has already begun work with the bank. She will work with them one day a week whilst completing her HSC at school and the Certificate 2 in Business with TAFE.

"My ambition is to eventually move into a management level position," Tannika said proudly.

The work involves all aspects of banking from customer relations to money management.

Tannika Kent (school based trainee) Chris Abbott deputy principal CHS, Auntie Sue Syron (Tannika's grandmother) Russell Sheldon, Australian Business Ltd and Gai Southwell, Aboriginal Employment Strategy.
